

Research and Experiential Learning for Undergraduates (RELU)
Oregon State University School of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science
Student Form

The purpose of this program is to give undergraduate students and faculty a chance to work together on projects related to each's field of interest. In exchange for actively participating in this program, each student will receive a $1,000 scholarship per quarter. The requirements for applying are:

- You must have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.30
- If you are a CS student, you must have already taken CS 161 and CS 162, and have taken, or be currently taking, CS 261.
- If you are an ECE student, you must have already taken three out of these four classes: ECE111, ECE112, ENGR201, ECE272.
- You must not have already taken, or be currently taking, your major's senior capstone
