

Volunteers Needed!

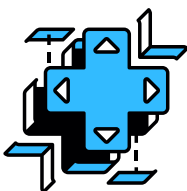

The Oregon Game Project Challenge (OGPC) is now recruiting volunteers for our May 12th event. You can help to prepare 6–12 graders for future STEM careers and make our 11th annual showcase and awards event a success!

Event Details

When: Saturday, May 12th

Where: Western Oregon
University, Monmouth, OR

Background checks and volunteer training prior to the event required

OREGON GAME
PROJECT CHALLENGE

What you get

- Food. Lunch is on us!
- Official t-shirt
- The chance to see how cool our kids are!
- Good feeling!

In OGPC, students work in teams to brainstorm, design, plan, and create computer games following our theme. Along the way, they learn about working together and developing skills that will carry them into college and beyond. We need you to bring this event to life! Make a difference by signing up today for judging (programming, art and music, professionalism, game design), speaking, or general event help.
