

Doctoral Time Limit

During the April Faculty Senate meeting, Jim Coakley presented several proposed policy revisions on behalf of the Graduate Council, including a Time Limit section related to Doctoral Degree Programs.

Based on comments received during the Faculty Senate meeting, the Graduate Council discussed the Time Limit and proposes to revise the section by deleting the strike-through text below. Theresa Filtz, Graduate Council Chair, will present the proposed revision.

Index

General Requirements

Graduate Study Program

Time Limit

Residence

Language Requirements

Preliminary Examination

Thesis

Final Examination

Doctor of Education Requirements

Time Limit

All work toward a doctoral degree, including ~~transferred credits~~, course work, thesis (if required), and all examinations, must be completed within nine years. Extensions of this time limit may be requested by submitting a petition to the Graduate School.